THE CANARY ISLANDS

FIND YOUR RESORT

The Canary Islands, also known as the Canaries are 7 main islands located off the coast of North West of Africa. The islands are autonomous communities of Spain and 4 of them are widely known as popular year round holiday destinations, due to their hot summers, and a warm winters

The four main islands, Tenerife, Fuerteventura, Gran Canaria and Lanzarote are all a 4-5 hour flight from the UK and welcome approximately 15 million visitors each year

The majority of the population of the Canaries are located in two of the largest islands, Tenerife and Gran Canaria and tourism makes up over a third of the GDP across the four islands.

Across the Canaries, there are 257 km of beaches, along with rugged volcanic landscapes, rocky cliffs, deserts and woodland.

There are numerous airlines which fly direct from the UK to different islands in the Canaries, including Easyjet, Jet2, Tui, Ryanair and Wizz Air. Direct flights can be found year round due to the Canaries being a popular winter sun destination.

There are a wide variety of different types of holiday resorts across the Canaries, from high rise hotels, apartments and villas. However, when it comes to swim up rooms, they are not as popular in the Canaries as they are in other holiday destinations such as Turkey or Greece.

If you are looking for a private villa with your own pool, there are plenty of those across the Canaries but swim up hotel rooms are few and far between!

However there are some on all of the main islands, and this guide will provide you with the run down on them all!

THE ISLANDS...

FIND YOUR RESORT

Tenerife is the largest of the Canary Islands and also the most populated. The main city is Santa Cruz de Tenerife and tourist hot spots on the island are areas such as Playa de las Americas, Costa Adeje and Los Cristianos to name a few.

Tenerife is home to Siam Park, a world famous waterpark and the Teide National Park, the largest national park in the Canaries.

Gran Canaria is the third largest island in the Canaries and is located just 93 miles off the coast of Africa.

Some of the popular tourist resorts on the island are Playa del Ingles, Las Palmas and Maspalomas which is famous for its sand dunes. The south of the island is famous for its beaches and warmer weather, however the north and west coasts of the island boasts rugged coastlines and landscapes, highlighting the diversity of the island.

Lanzarote, is one of the smaller Canary Islands and is just 60km by 30km in size so easy to get around and explore.

Tourist hotspots on the island include Playa Blanca, Costa Teguise and Puerto Del Carmen and the island is also a UNESCO protected biosphere reserve. Lanzarote is also home to the volcanic landscape of Parque Nacional de Timanfaya and some incredible cycling and hiking trails

Fuerteventura, is the oldest of the Canary islands as it was first to emerge from the Atlantic Ocean millions of years ago. The main tourist hotspots on the island are Corralejo, Costa Caleta and Jandia, which is famous for its stunning beaches

Water-sports are popular on the island due to the rugged coastlines, with windsurfing being a key draw for the island, which host the Windsurfing World Championships each year.

SWIM UP ROOMS

FIND YOUR RESORT

Swim up rooms – a holiday essential, a luxury, or a waste of money? Read on for my first world problems when it comes to swim up rooms and how to make sure you get the perfect swim up room for you!

A swim up room is where you have direct access from your hotel room to a swimming pool – whether that's a private pool or a pool shared with a small number of other rooms.

The advantages of a swim up room are varied, but my favourite part about having a swim up room is that you usually have your own sunbeds on your terrace, so the morning dash to get your towels down on a bed is no more! It also means you share the pool with a smaller number of guests (or none at all if you have a private pool) so may mean a less crowded swimming experience.

I really do love a swim up room, however its worth bearing in mind that not all are created equal! It's worth doing some research before you pay the extra as in some cases, it may not be best investment for your holiday! Depending on whether you like morning or afternoon sun, or expect sun all day long, it's worth checking to avoid any disappointment. Try checking rip Advisor or Facebook groups for reviews which might tell you when the room / pool get the sun.

Also depending on the location of the swim up rooms, it might be a long walk to the bar, so check on Google maps or get hold of a resort map to double check if this would bother you. But apart from that, depending on what you are looking for in a holiday, a swim up room can be a lovely treat – just be warned, they can be addictive!
